

General Conditions for Membership in the Graduate School Chemistry (GCh)

With the admission to the Konstanz Research School Chemistry the doctoral researcher is committed to:

- accept the rules of good scientific practice
- keep to the following time schedule for the assessment of the work:

06 months	18 months	30 months
06-Month Thesis Committee Meeting (presentation of project aims and work plan)	18-Month Thesis Committee Meeting (presentation of results achieved to date and work plan)	30-Month Thesis Committee Meeting (presentation of results achieved to date and work plan until submission of thesis)
06-Month Report* (proposal)	18-Month Report* (abstract)	30-Month Report* or first-author publication (progress report)

* Report guidelines are available on the GCh homepage

- participate in the following training programme of GCh in accordance with advice of Thesis Committee:

Activity	Time
1x Good Scientific Practice Course*	within first six months
A total of 4 course days (scientific/transferable)	within first three years
- thereof at least 1x Scientific Course	within first three years
- thereof at least 1x Transferable Skills Course	within first three years at least 10x Talks of the Faculty of Sciences at the University of Konstanz, 5 of them from GDCh series	within first three years

* the course is offered by the Academic Staff Development of the University of Konstanz

 if you attend a course that is not offered by the Graduate School please check prior to the course whether the course is accepted

Valid from March 2023