

PUBLIC READING

Award Winning Australian Writers Frank Moorhouse and Campbell Jefferys

Come and meet these award winning authors.

This is an amazing opportunity to hear internationally acclaimed works read by the authors themselves and then join them for refreshments and great conversation afterwards - everyone welcome.

Date: Thursday, July 2nd
Time: 18:00 – 20:00
Room: V1001
University of Konstanz

Everyone Welcome

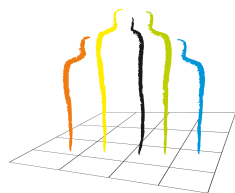

For further information
please contact the organiser:
Professor Dr Christa Knellwolf King.
christa.knellwolf-king@uni-konstanz.de

Frank Moorhouse is currently teaching creative writing at the University of Konstanz as visiting senior fellow of the Zukunftskolleg. He is also working on the third novel of his trilogy about the League of Nations. The first book, published in 1994, is titled Grand Days and the second book Dark Palace, from 2000, won various international awards. He has also won awards for his 1989 novel Forty Seventeen and for his critical essay "The Writer in a Time of Terror."

Campbell Jefferys is a professional author who teaches creative writing at the University of Hamburg. He has published two novels, the first being The Bicycle Teacher, followed by Hunter which won the Next Generation Indie Book award, marking him as one of the next generation of successful authors. He is currently working on his third novel. Campbell Jefferys will be reading from this award winning novel Hunter.

DAAD

Deutscher Akademischer Austausch
Dienst - German Academic Exchange
Service

Zukunftskolleg
free • creative • connecting

Universität
Konstanz

Department of Literature, University of Konstanz