Call for Applications: Zukunftskolleg transdepartmental collaborative teaching

The Zukunftskolleg of the University of Konstanz offers up to 5 Grants of up to 5,000 €

to initiate transdepartmental collaborative teaching.

In line with the multidisciplinary character of the Zukunftskolleg, the program is open to young researchers in all faculties of Konstanz University, in collaboration with at least one Zukunftskolleg fellow.

Aims of the programme

This funding programme aims at promoting the development of new teaching courses and at contributing to the departmental syllabi. The programme gives grant holders the opportunity to explore new, innovative topics in teaching, to further develop their teaching skills and to evolve teaching approaches across disciplines. Recipients must deliver the course before the end of the academic year following the grant. The courses need to be taught by young researchers (pre-professor) from at least two departments, and involve at least one fellow of the Zukunftskolleg.

Financial support will be given, e.g. to invite guest speakers, organize visits to archives, museums, or perform experiments.

Application

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis.

03.11.2016

Applications must contain:

- A description of the proposed course, including a description of the need that the grant will fill (max. 5 pages)
- A plan of the course. The course will be listed in the departmental teaching curriculum in the summer term 2017.
- An expenditure plan (funds have to be spent until October 31, 2017)
- Any logistical support needed that is not included in the budget
- CVs of the fellows involved in the collaborative teaching project (maximum length 3 pages per person).
