

Career Passport

Preparation for the German labour market

Universität
Konstanz

The Career Passport Certificate is awarded to international students who have voluntarily and intensively prepared themselves for the German labour market during their studies. They have demonstrated above-average commitment and acquired important skills for a successful career in Germany.

Career Passport Certificate

Julie Burger

has participated in activities to prepare for the German labour market and has gained the following experiences and competences:

German language

Documented language level: B1

Practical experience

- Internship Marketing at Blandt Group, Augsburg (May – August 2024)

Interdisciplinary competences

- Course “Data science for humanities”

Intercultural competences

- Project seminar “Working with refugees”

Career orientation

- Professional orientation test
- Individual career counselling

Application competences

- Application documents check

Networking

- Talk “Starting a career in Germany – international alumni share their story”
- Career day kontaktpunkt
- Hack and Harvest Hackathon

Konstanz, 13/08/2024

Dieses Schreiben wurde maschinell erstellt und ist ohne Unterschrift gültig.

Career Service der Universität Konstanz